Christmas Luncheon and social time

Attendance report- Jeanne House: 49 members and 7 guests.

Program—Barb Thorvilson—Monet Exhibit in Denver (slide show) A beautiful presentation was enjoyed by all. Many thanks to Barb for putting this together for our club members.

The divisions of beginning, intermediate, advanced categories will be available for painters to choose from for entering their paintings.

Barb Thorvilson : A new criteria judging sheet for judging is being developed for the Judges to use when examining the art show entries. Hopefully this will convey more useful information to each painter at the end of the judging.

We do need some muscle in helping with the display cases that need to be brought over from the storage units. Please show up at the storage units around 9:00 to help.

Judy Phillips will run the shop at the Art Show.

We do still need a couple of donated paintings for the raffle that is held during the 2-day show.

Our New Web Site is being developed for MSAA by Tracie McBride; the current website is now being redone. It will not be available till next spring. In the meantime, please visit our Facebook web site where new information is posted.

No 50/50 this month—please consider donating as the money will be evenly split among Amberly's Place, Littlewood Co-op, and the Humane Shelter of Yuma. We had $144.00 donated from our club.

Nomination committee report—Chuck Warner-chairman. We still need a volunteer that will act as next year's Treasurer. Please see Judy if you can help.

Johnnie Alstatt- Announcement from WMFA- looking for judges for our Art Show.

Wildlife Painter Information, please contact—Diana Germain- she has the information if you are interested in learning more techniques in wildlife painting.
