President's Message:

Hello Everyone,

I am looking forward to arriving in Yuma just in time for our first meetings which required some changes by the library. Please note changes for October meetings. Snacks for coffee break are always welcome along with a piece of art for show and tell. Always love to see what the summer has inspired.

I am excited to see the 2022-2023 season underway. To start we have been nominated for the Odyssey Award from the city of Yuma! It is an honor and great opportunity to promote MSAA. We are always excited for new members from the community.

Art and Poetry this year has the artwork entered first. Enter up to 2 pieces of artwork by November 29, 2022. Poets will choose a piece of art to write a poem about. The theme is 'Crossing Yuma.' See Foothills Library for more details.

Paint-in-Day is happening this season! Thank you, Judy.

Janet has been working hard on our Art Show slated for February 2023. She has been working on new forms for the both the entries and jurors. We are hoping to define the criteria required and include as many visual art forms as possible.

The manual and bylaws committee have been working over the summer to complete the updated versions. We hope to get this out as soon as possible and voted on by the membership.

Art Trails always an incredible ending to the season, so plan ahead, paint, draw, sculpt, fuse, create and have fun. Thank you, Kirk.

Please forward any information regarding classes or events relevant to MSAA to Johnnie or any of the board members so we can bring that information to the membership.

Reach out to others, encourage, support, teach and bring them along to meet other artists. This is your group, step up, volunteer, enjoy.

Regards,
Louise Pimlott

Art Show: February 10-11th, 2023

To all MSAA members, I am looking forward to a new season and working with you all making new art and showing Yuma (if no the world) just how talented we all are.

I am so lucky to be the Art Show chairman. What are some of the good things? Well, getting to know you all better is the best thing. Seeing it come into shape; with all the beautiful art work on display is a wonderful thing. Just to name a couple. I cannot do this without the help of you all and I know from last year that I can count on you all this year.

There will be a raffle this year. I will be donating a painting, but I will need two more pieces donated.

I also need someone to design an "ad" for the Art show. So, if you are good with a computer, I am looking for you!

I look forward to a Fun Season with you all,
Janet Moon
