President's Message:

Welcome back winter visitors and hello to our full time Yuman artists! Here we are at the beginning of a new season, getting a slow start, but winding up to another creative winter.

Our meetings are back at the Foothills library, the Art Show and Artrails will happen too. We have the opportunity to host a Holiday Art Fair in the library as well. Please note that the Thursday Coffee Time is now at Donut Corral. Later in the season we will start our Tuesday gathering at the Sunshine Cafe as well.

Linda Willets and Teresa Mallet have an interesting project going on and the County Fair is this month, more info from Judy on that.

On a personal note, I figured I had better bring everyone up to speed on my changed circumstances. Just after Artrails in March, I flew home early to take on the care of my three grandchildren. They are 1, 2 and 3 years old. Our son ended up with temporary custody, do to a traumatic event, but he is also working full time. I ended up as their primary caregiver. It has been a huge adjustment, but such a joy to finally be in their lives. We have spent the summer bounced around by the courts and still do not have a final outcome. But son works in landscaping so he will be laid off come end of November. Until then, and possible later, depending on court dates, I am needed and will stay here. I am expecting to be south for January and February, everything else is fluid right now. I apologize for not being there, I realize it makes things harder to deal with and I feel like I am leaving you hanging. I promise I'm trying my best to keep all these dang balls in the air!

Thanks much and I will be seeing you soon!
Sincerely, Sally Rose

Sally Rose: Some of you expressed interest in doing a Holiday Art Fair. We could not do it last year, but I am happy to report that we have been offered the use of the Foothills Library meeting room on Saturday December 11th. We can get in and set up Friday afternoon. Anyone that is interested in participating, please contact me ASAP. If we do not have enough to make a go of it, I will need to let Caitlyn know in case someone else would like the space.

Kirk Redlin: The dates for Artrails will be March 4th and 5th 2022. Deadline for pictures in the brochure is The general meeting in December. I will be there to take pictures if needed.

Mark Wall: There are new shows that open at the Yuma Art Center that the group may be interested in knowing about.
